Dear Sir/Madam:

This responds to your May 19, 2014, request for information regarding the status of your group tax exemption.

Our records indicate that you were issued a determination letter in March 1946, that you are currently exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are described in sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i).

With your request, you provided a copy of the Official Catholic Directory for 2014, which includes the names and addresses of the agencies and instrumentalities and the educational, charitable, and religious institutions operated by the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, its territories, and possessions that are subordinate organizations under your group tax exemption. Your request indicated that each subordinate organization is a non-profit organization, that no part of the net earnings thereof inures to the benefit of any individual, and that no substantial part of their activities is for promotion of legislation. You have further represented that none of your subordinate organizations is a private foundation under section 509(a), although all subordinates do not all share the same sub-classification under section 509(a). Based on your representations, the subordinate organizations in the Official Catholic Directory for 2014 are recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code under GEN 0928.

Donors may deduct contributions to you and your subordinate organizations as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to them or for their use are deductible for federal estate and gifts tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of section 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Subordinate organizations under a group exemption do not receive individual exemption letters. Most subordinate organizations are not separately listed in Publication 78 or the EO Business Master File. Donors may verify that a subordinate organization is included

In your group exemption by consulting the Official Catholic Directory, the official subordinate listing approved by you, or by contacting you directly. IRS does not verify the inclusion of subordinate organizations under your group exemption. See IRS Publication 4573, Group Exemption, for additional information about group exemptions.

Each subordinate organization covered in a group exemption should have its own EIN. Each subordinate organization must use its own EIN, not the EIN of the central organization, in all filings with IRS.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely,

Tamera Ripperda

ORGANIZATIONAL EXPERIENCE AND CAPABILITIES

5. Indicators of our effectiveness, quality, and outcomes achieved for similar programs.

Charts showing the performance for the previous three (3) years are marked as Outcomes Achieved and are located behind Tab 4.

Birth Families – From July 1, 2012 through June 30, 2014, 78 birth mothers have sought information and counseling regarding adoptive placement of their unborn child and/or child(ren) that they were raising; all children were under the age of 12 months. Of these 78 birth parents, 18 made an adoptive placement and 60 chose to parent their child. Staff spent approximately 1,200 hours working with these families during the same period. Most of the birth families seeking our help were categorized as low-income. They needed housing, formula, clothing, diapers, food and furniture. Catholic Charities has only been able to provide assistance with these items on a very limited basis because of lack of funds.

A desired outcome is: Birth families will have sufficient information to begin adoption proceedings. The performance indicator is 95% of birth families will receive time and appropriate information to guide their decision-making. In the past four years the program has met or exceeded the 95% threshold in providing sufficient information for adoption proceedings.

Adoptive Families –The desired outcome is: Families will successfully parent adoptive children. The performance indicator is: 90% of families that adopt will be able to meet the special needs of adoptive children as evidenced by the number of finalizations per month. The 90% threshold has consistently been met for the past three years.

Help Me Grow – is a home-visiting program that provides support and services to children prenatal to age three. Catholic Charities has offered it for 12 years in Lorain County and it is currently offered there as well Ashland, Cuyahoga, Geauga, Lake, Lorain, Summit and Wayne Counties. The desired outcome is: 75% of Help Me Grow parent participants will increase their skills to help their child learn and develop as evidenced by a response of 3 or 4 to the question, "Have you increased your ability to use skills that will help your child grow, learn and develop in an age-appropriate manner within a safe, positive and healthy home environment?" This threshold has been met. Bright Beginnings, a program within Help Me Grow is offered at the Catholic Charities|St. Martin de Porres Family Center.

Mom's First – This City of Cleveland program, designed for pregnant woman and children to age two, has been offered at the Catholic Charities|St. Martin de Porres Family Center since 1990. The purpose is to reduce the number of babies that die before they are a year old by providing prenatal/parenting health education and services, case management and home visits. The desired outcome that 95% of mothers will deliver a healthy baby has been met.

Parents As Teachers – has been offered in Lorain County for three years with 160 parents completing the program. They have learned about and have been provided with resources to reduce child abuse and neglect, including, but not limited to learning coping skills to deal with the stress of children, employment, and school; basic life skills; and early childhood development. Screenings of children reveal physical, emotional, intellectual and social difficulties.

In addition, our four family centers offer a number of activities designed to strengthen the family unit. Other services, such as Early Childhood Mental Health are also offered.

Adoption Assistance

Catholic Charities approves adoptive families and foster families through the home-study process. Currently, 45 Foster Families are certified and 60 adoptive families are approved through Catholic Charities. Our diverse staff is able to work across counties and programs to meet the needs of individuals and families. The support services we can offer to the targeted population in a timely, seamless manner helps make sure that our clients' needs are met in the easiest way possible for them. For example, if a pregnant client is being served by birth family/adoption services, and it is determined she needs assistance finding a job, we can immediately refer her to Employment and Training Services, whose purpose is to help clients seek for obtain, and retain a job that matches their interests, skills and knowledge.

In addition, as a provider of birth family and adoption services, staff works with clients for the duration of the pregnancy and beyond. We support birth mothers/families as they examine what is best their child and themselves. We work with adoptive families through the adoption process, and are available to them and to adoptees, who wish to connect with birth families even years after an adoption occurs. We currently offer these services free-of-charge. This grant would allow us to be reimbursed for these services and would allow us to help more families throughout the diocese as a result.

PROGRAM DESIGN

14. Planned Uses of Funding for this Program

a. Increase numbers served

Yes

No

Birth mothers/families – It is expected that 30 additional (unduplicated) birth mothers/families who meet TANF and other requirements set forth in the RFGA JFSR141517808 will be served through this grant. This will be accomplished by developing a comprehensive community awareness/marketing campaign that will promote childbirth and alternatives to abortion through adoption. A concentrated campaign in observation of National Adoption Month will be executed, along with increased outreach and education to prospective birth and adoptive families in counties that have traditionally not availed themselves to our services. The reimbursement of counseling hours through this grant will also allow social workers to spend more time conducting outreach and providing counseling services to more birth mothers/families.

b. Provide expanded or new services

Yes

No

Counseling of Birth Mother/Family – When women come to us for counsel regarding whether to place their child for adoption or keep the baby, they are often in need of basic essentials, such as clothing and housing. Frequently, we do not have resources to help them. This grant would allow us to assist clients and help ensure a healthier pregnancy, birth and successful first year. For example, we have heard stories that it is easier to have an abortion than to have a child because landlords prohibit children and the mother/birth family doesn't have the money to move, or parents of young women refuse to help and the woman leaves home. Money from this grant would give us the opportunity to reach out to these women in these situations and provide short-term assistance while helping them plan for the long-term. If during the counseling process, it is deemed that clients have mental health issues that need to be addressed, they will be referred to the appropriate mental health professionals.

Mommy Bags – Birth mothers will receive Mommy Bags, which will contain items for their babies, such as powder, pacifiers, and lotions. Bags will also contain lotions and soaps for the mothers.

Employment Services – Pregnant and parenting women, caregivers or birth fathers in need of employment will be able to participate in job development activities offered by Catholic Charities Employment and Training. These activities include, but are not limited to helping clients prepare a resume and cover letter; increasing their knowledge of interviewing and conducting mock interviews; addressing employment gaps; providing job leads; and completing paper and on-line applications. The employment and training coordinator, Lashana Bolden, will also discuss topics such as proper attire to wear for an interview and how to follow-up with employers after an interview.

A maximum of 30 individuals needing employment assistance will be served during the contract period. Training will occur at a group setting at the St. Philip-Neri Family Center, or individually in counties other than Cuyahoga. Classes will be offered at Catholic Charities' sites, public libraries, or similar settings. Some may be offered on a one-on-one basis. Employment services will be provided at least once per week, but no more than maximum four days per week. Adoption Services has not been able to offer employment services to its clients so this will be a new service.

Healthcare – Pregnant and parenting women will have access to health care and well-baby health care. A portion of the budget will be used to cover items not covered by insurance. It is estimated that 15 clients will benefit from prenatal care and 15 children will receive well-child care,

APPENDIX A

TECHNICAL APPLICATION

Transportation for Clients – Public transportation is difficult to use and is nearly non-existent in six of the eight counties served. Therefore, case workers will provide transportation for up to 30 clients to medical and other social service appointments on an as-needed basis. These services are being proposed to help ensure mom and baby wellness.

Prepare- Enrich – (a dating/engaged/married inventory) – Another component that will be offered as a new service to pregnant and parenting couples is Prepare-Enrich, a web-based, online survey that each partner takes to help identify the unique strengths and potential growth areas of their premarital or married relationship. It is expected that at least five couples will avail themselves of this opportunity at no cost to them. The program lead and three case workers will be trained to facilitate the program, so its impact can continue beyond this contract period.

Natural Family Planning – This program will be made available to clients upon request and at no-cost to clients. This would be offered in-kind and is not part of this program budget.

c. Expand geographical area served Yes No

Although Catholic Charities serves the eight counties of the Cleveland Catholic Diocese, many of the counties have historically been underserved by adoption services. We recognize there is a great need to better promote and offer our services in these counties. For example, in 2013, 38% of clients resided in Cuyahoga County and 25% listed "other residence" outside of our eight county service area; these figures constituted 63% of persons served. Similarly, in 2012 45% of persons served lived in these two demographic areas. Forty-seven (or 10%) of clients were from Summit County in 2012, but no clients from Summit County were served in 2013.

d. Other Services Yes No

Help Me Grow (HMG) – Participants of this program are a natural fit for Help Me Grow after the child reaches 12 months of age as prescribed in this RFGA, as well as for other birth families that may qualify, but are unaware of the program and its benefits. Thus, a portion of the budget will be used to increase awareness about the Help Me Grow program, thereby increasing the number of families served, and families strengthened as a result of participation. An increasing number of people requesting and needing HMG services are Hispanic. Funds will also be used to translate brochures and other materials into Spanish to aid non-English-speaking individuals.

Babysitting – Babysitters will be hired on an as-needed basis to help ensure that clients may participate in counseling, employment and other services.

Food – Some funds have been allocated for food to provide to clients until they can be enrolled in SNAP. They may also be referred to food pantries operated by Catholic Charities and the Catholic Charities Hunger and Shelter Network.

Furniture – Clients in need of furniture and other household goods will receive vouchers for the Cleveland Furniture Bank. Limited funds will also be available to cover the cost of delivery.

Housing – Clients have made comments that it is easier to have an abortion than to move (to a place that allows children); yet, securing adequate housing is difficult. Funds will be made available as needed to help at least seven (7) pregnant or parenting women/families secure adequate housing or pay utilities.

Interpreters – Given the high number of non-English-speaking clients served, some funds have been set-aside for translators.

Legal Services – Clients who are considering creating an adoption plan may need legal services that are difficult to retain due to financial situations. Assistance will be provided on a case-by-case basis.

16. Partner Organizations

Birth Family, Foster Care and Adoption Services – The staff receives referrals from and makes referrals to Maggie's Place, an organization that helps pregnant and parenting women; and Womankind, an organization that provides comprehensive prenatal care, education and emotional support to pregnant women; and the Barberton Pregnancy Center, which educates pregnant women and parents and offers basic needs for a new baby. We also work with Blessing House in Lorain County, which provides shelter for children of families in crisis by providing a temporary safe home. Adoption Services also works with all local hospitals, including but not limited to The Cleveland Clinic and its affiliates; University Hospital and its affiliates; and Akron Children's Hospital.

17. Eligibility Requirements

All clients served by this program must meet one or more of the four purposes of the temporary assistance for needy family block grant as specified in 42 U.S.C. 601. The purposes are: (1) provide assistance to needy families so that children may be cared for in their own homes or in the homes of relatives; (2) end the dependence of needy parents on government benefits by promoting job preparation, work, and marriage; (3) prevent and reduce the incidence of out-of-wedlock pregnancies and establish annual numerical goals for preventing and reducing the incidence of these pregnancies; and (4) encourage the formation and maintenance of two-parent families. (b) No individual entitlement.

Additional requirements for Birth Family, Foster Care and Adoption Services – Clients will be eligible for services if they are pregnant; parenting a child 12 months of age or younger; or have placed a baby for adoption within the past 12 months. Caregivers and other family members who meet requirements may also access these services.

APPENDIX A

TECHNICAL APPLICATION

18. Target Audience

The target audiences are pregnant women and birth families, along with their children 12 months of age or younger. Individuals and families attending parishes of the Cleveland Catholic Diocese will be targeted. Staff will also attend community events and other venues to increase the public's awareness of programs and services that promote childbirth as an alternative to abortion. Counties that have historically not used our services – or may not even be aware of them – will be targeted. A comprehensive campaign will be designed and launched in observation of National Adoption Month in November. Pregnant and parenting individuals seeking assistance when considering adoption will also be targeted. Individual who seek counsel will be helped regardless of their decision to place their babies for adoption or parent themselves.

The program lead and case workers will be trained to facilitate the Prepare-Enrich Program. The director of Catholic Charities Marriage and Family Ministries is certified to train others and he will train the identified staff. Dating, engaged or married couples will be invited to complete the on-line Prepare-Enrich assessment tool. Trained staff will help facilitate the process. Additionally, those wishing to learn more about Natural Family Planning will be referred to Catholic Charities Marriage and Family Ministries for additional information.
